
Title: Welcome to the Abbey

Author: Selfie the Curator

Welcome to Empath
Abbey! Th'most
prominent place in Yew!

First let me tell ye there're a few rules around here. Please do not litter, if you do not want an item, there be a Donations Box beside the Banker in the Eastern Wing of the Abbey. Place your discarded items in there and I shall deal with them.

I would also appreciate it if you don't bring your animals inside the Abbey.
Th'Abbey is a Holy place and we should treat it with respect! Not as a barn!

Please also disarm yourself upon entering the Abbey as I said before, it is a Holy place! I don't want any fightin' goin' on in 'ere!

That aboot covers it for rules, now onta the Facilities of the Abbey!

The Abbey has many fine Facilities that are open for everyone.

The second door on your right upon entering is the Dining room. The first door on your right and the two doors on your left upon entering are offices and libraries. If you take the left staircase there is a music hall as well as more libraries. If you take the right staircase you will enter the artists hall where you may paint portraits, and there are also more offices up there.

The western wing of the Abbey has many rooms for guests to sleep in.

The eastern wing also has rooms to sleep in, as well as Bankers that will allow you to access your bank box.

If you continue past the staircases, straight ahead is the Sanctuary.

Please feel free to use any of these facilities, and enjoy your stay at Empath Abbey!
